Spotlight on the Pioneers ...

ACADEMICS

Perhaps the most important aspect of the high school career at St. John's is academia. Students at all levels are pushed to their utmost potential, making a noticeably study-oriented atmosphere. Through the help of the faculty, students are educated in a variety of areas ranging from the mysterious inner workings of the human body to great works in world literature. The St. John's academic curriculum is such that hard work is a necessity, but an in-depth understanding of the topic is the fruit of the labors. ■

▼Students work with the principles of light and reflection in the St. John's physics lab.

TRADITIONS

For 98 years footsteps and murmurs have echoed in the hallowed halls at St. John's. And for many more years they shall continue ... St. John's has long upheld its tradition of being a premier educational institution in Worcester County, and a formidable opponent on the playing field. These are traditions that shall live on at St. John's regardless of who it is that walks the halls. ■

◀ Our trademark, the famous St. John's sign.

▼Sophomores Brian Cabana and Peter McGovern chat with Assistant Headmaster, Brother Stephen Comeau, C.F.X., in his office.

ATHLETICS

Athletics at St. John's has been a long standing tradition. Through the help, support, and encouragement of wonderful coaches, the St. John's athletic teams have excelled in sports from football to crew.

This past year, the St. John's cross-country team captured its eighth consecutive district title ... showing all of Worcester County the athletic prowess that is typical of the St. John's teams.

But, winning isn't everything. St. John's students have lived up to the proper codes of sportsmanship and fair play. These characteristics make the players winners, no matter what the final score ...■

▼St. John's first boat crew team on its way to victory.

ACTIVITIES

St. John's has many activities to offer its entire student body. Sports and clubs make up only a small part of them. Every student can get involved in the St. John's annual Spring Show, or donate their time and energies to the St. John's Auction. Dances, Blood Drives, Food Drives, Big Brother programs ... all are activities above and beyond sports, academics, and clubs that students enjoy. The activities at St. John's are such that the students can help others, the school, or simply relax and enjoy themselves ... all, however, promise a good time and enrich the sense of community present at St. John's.■

◀Stars of the St. John's Drama Club's production of "The Odd Couple," senior Tom Taris and junior Matt Shook, take their bows.

▼National Honor Society students from St. John's and the Bancroft School gather to benefit the Massachusetts Easter Seals Foundation at their Annual Haunted House.

FACULTY

DEDICATION. In a word, dedication is the best description of St. John's faculty. Perhaps the most important thing the St. John's student realizes is that his teachers are dedicated not only to their job, but to the student. Not only in the classroom, but on the playing field, in clubs, and in virtually all aspects of life at St. John's, the dedication of the faculty is clearly evident. This dedication enriches the student's experience at St. John's because the faculty are not seen only as educators, but as friends.■

◀Drama Club directors Mr. Patrick Dolan and Mr. Jerry Coggins after another successful performance.

STUDENT LIFE

St. John's affords its students plenty of opportunities for an active and exciting extracurricular life. To help alleviate the toils and hard work involved in the academics, students may partake of any of the 33 clubs that St. John's offers. Whether your interest is in literature, math, chess, or computers, St. John's has something to offer each student beyond academics and athletics. St. John's students realize the necessity of academics, but also partake in a variety of other clubs that enrich in a less formal atmosphere. ■

IN TRAINING

Late in August 90 seniors gathered with teachers and graduates of the class of '91 for the St. John's Leadership Institute. Three days of living and learning side by side with classmates and teachers was an eye-opening experience for many seniors. Volleyball games after lunch and refreshing dips in the lake were, in the joking words of Sean Gavin, "Male-bonding at its best."

The seniors spent most of the time in small groups exploring leadership and group dynamics. Scott Bukowski simply stated, "I liked the small groups and the little masses at the end of the day the best." Three days of talking, playing, and learning together created a special bond between the seniors.

The seniors topped off the time of friendship and discovery with some energetic senior skits and a late night farewell bonfire featuring a surprise appearance by Brother Connolly. As they bid a sad goodbye to the staff of the Warren Center and their favorite chef Frenchie, the seniors also began to prepare for the coming of their final year.

IN WITH THE NEW (WITH SOME HELP FROM THE OLD)

Chess and basketball were just two of the activities that the freshmen could have enjoyed on "Big Brother" Day. September 13, 1991 began with a short meeting. Here, seniors and freshmen could get acquainted with each other. This S.A.C. sponsored day continued with a display of the various activities that were available at St. John's. After that, the students enjoyed the rest of the day by playing football, racquetball, basketball, soccer, baseball, and other sports. Mr. Coggins reminded the "Big Brothers" the importance of the day by saying, "This is not a day for the seniors. It is a day for the freshmen." It was exactly that; a day where the freshmen could adapt with their school and classmates with the help of some altruistic seniors.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

One of the unique aspects of St. John's is one that is usually overlooked: Campus Ministry. Three years ago, Brother Jim Connolly, C.F.X. came to St. John's and added a new dimension to the school. Campus Ministry has many responsibilities which include running retreats, co-sponsoring Worcester area charity fund raisers, and helping to organize masses and prayer services. Campus Ministry offers the opportunity for students to talk to someone on a personal basis. Brother Jim does not carry the burden of this job alone; he has a staff of peer ministers to assist him. Father Niccolls can also be seen assisting with the task of counseling. The Campus Ministry office and Brother Jim are two of the guiding forces at St. John's.

THE ODD COUPLE

The Fall of 1991 brought Neil Simon's hilarious yet revealing classic, "The Odd Couple" to the Saint John's Drama Club. The roles of Felix and Oscar were played by Tom Taris, '92, and Matt Shook, '93, respectively. The poker players, Murray, Roy, Speed, and Vinny provided a backdrop for the work, and were played by Dan Bennett, '92, Mark Galante, '93, Jim Wennerberg, '94 and Pete Sullivan, '94 with a remarkable sense of reality and ease. We asked what you thought of either of the performances held at Quinsigamond Community College and here are some of the responses ...

"'The Odd Couple' was an excellent production. All the actors played their roles to a unique perfection."

- Gregory Kean, '93

"I am always amazed at the ability of the students to, first of all 'learn all those lines' and to deliver them with such ease, keeping the attention of the audience."

- Mrs. Virginia Gregory

"I enjoyed seeing the talents that the actors had and displayed outside of school ... Lot's of laughs!"

- Mr. Timothy Duffy

"The entire cast was very professional ... Thanks for the many laughs, a great job, and I will be looking forward to future productions."

- Mr. Gerald Taylor

"I've seen two productions now - anyone who misses these nights has no idea what St. John's Drama is all about. And I'm not just saying this because my brother was a director!"

- Mr. Jay Coggins

"I was sore from laughing so hard!!!"

- Br. Stephen Comeau, C.F.X.

"Film-rental inspiring!"

- Roger Dubuque, '93

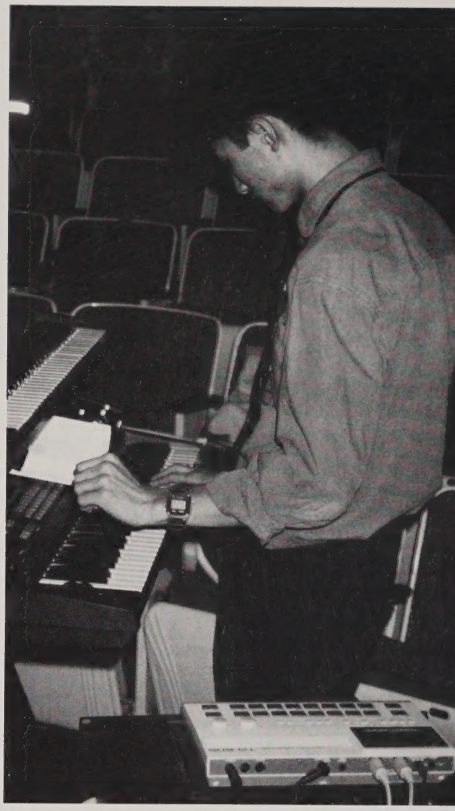
ONE "COOKY" SHOW!

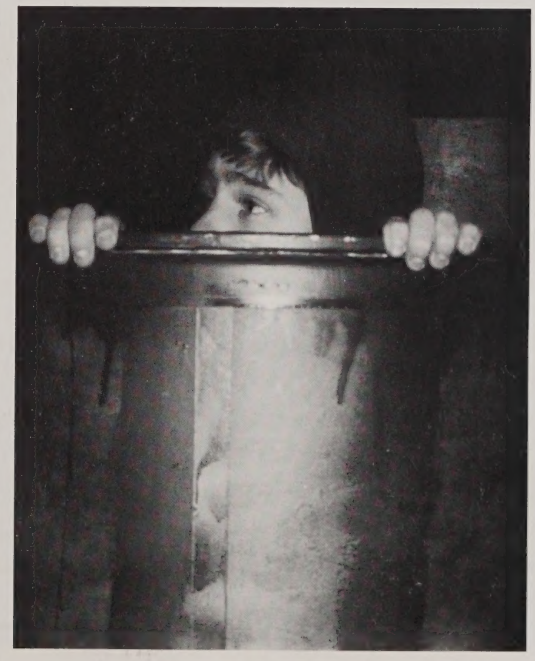
Within a few days after Christmas break, the SJ Drama Club announced the tryouts for roles in the literally "fantastic" winter production, "The Hobbit". This play, quite possibly J.R.R. Tolkien's most famous, brought with it not only a new atmosphere to the typical SJ production, but also a new "tri-director", sophomore Neil McConnell. When the cast was in fact drawn up, Neil as well as Mr. Patrick Dolan and Mr. Jerry Coggins took on the task of transforming St. John's "prepsters" into Dwarves & Elves, Wizards & Goblins, and even Hobbits and whatever you want to call Gollum. Regardless, this task could not have been accomplished without the talent and dedication of the stage crew, led by officers Brian Anderson and Matteo DiMartino, who transformed the Hebert Auditorium of Q.C.C. into a "dreamy" storybook set of scenes that even Tolkien would have prized. Finally, the music was provided by Jason Clermont, '92, who wrote an original award winning score with the help of fellow seniors Steve Schonhoff and Jon Ciottone. After the two successful scheduled performances in February, "The Hobbit" journeyed to State Competitions at Westborough, and ultimately the semi-finals at Peabody H.S. There, actors Steve Schonhoff, Scott Bonneau, and Jim Wennerberg (seen at right) were awarded for their roles, as was Jason Clermont for his excellent music. Although they did not advance to the finals, all agreed with Mark Galante and Jim Wennerberg, the newly elected '92-'93 officers, that this was one "Cooky" show, but many can still quote Mr. Dolan by saying, "'The Hobbit' is finally dead."

Chris Colman, '93, shows off his big sword and green tights in an elf scene as his elfin queen, Tara Reddy (NDA), looks on.

Chris Kristant, '94, looks as if he's just met the L.A.P.D. but he's in character as an old Dwarf.

There's the musical master himself, senior Jason Clermont gettin' busy on the keyboard at rehearsal. Go Jay!





Although this (far left) may look like the Grand Wizard of the KKK, it is only Jim Wennerberg playing the Wacky Wizard, Gandolf, as he argues with Thorin.

Joe Manzoli, '94: Come out, Come out, Wherever you are!

MOVIEMANIA

For the twenty-sixth year, the Saint John's gymnasium was transformed for the Spring Spectacular. This year audiences were taken onto the set where "Moviemania" was being taped. It was a smashing hit. All three performances were full houses.

The audience was dazzled by cuts from movies such as For the Boys, Good Morning Vietnam and from various science fiction movies such as Star Wars and Ghostbusters. They saw Broadway musicals like My Fair Lady and Girl Crazy that were transformed into movies. The audience was moved by hit songs from the recently released Beauty and the Beast. The special performance of the "Rocketeer" also caught the audience's attention.

This all came together under the direction of Br. Stephen Comeau, Sheila Fucci and Kyle Gonyea. They worked for months with the students every Saturday morning teaching dance steps and lyrics while countless hours were spent constructing this year's spectacular set.

Congratulations to all who helped make this year's show a box office hit (Ad drive supporters, refreshment crew, ushers, lighting & stage crew, jazz ensemble dancers and chorus) as well as Br. Comeau, Br. Fahey, Mrs. Bouvier, Mr. Gregory, Sheila and Kyle.

SING A NEW SONG ...

The Saint John's Chorus, once again, did a very fine job of filling the corridors with their melodious voices. Under the superb direction of Mr. Al Vaudreuil and Mr. Stephen Gregory, the chorus resounded throughout all of Saint John's masses during the year. Beginning with the Mass of the Holy Spirit, continuing through Christmas and through to Ascension Thursday, the chorus was a source of inspiration for us all. In between masses, many chorus members took time to join the Spring Concert at Notre Dame Academy, and many of the Notre Dame singers returned the favor by singing at Saint John's own Senior Mass. We thank these ladies for the opportunity to sing with them.

Senior members Mike Sasena, Art Lew, and Rick Subrizio will be especially missed next year, but with underclassmen like Ron Fontaine and Chris Kristant coming up the ranks, next year is sure to be as good as 1992.

"IN THE MOOD" FOR JAZZ

During this year seventeen committed students have been working with Director, Mr. Alan Vaudreuil, to build a competitive Jazz Ensemble. Even with the talent and dedication of all involved, the goal has been a difficult one. The band in setting its aim knew its handicap; our Ensemble has four hours a week split between sectionals before school and rehearsals after school to practice, but it must compete against bands that have full-time music programs which allow for in-school practice as well as "outside" time. How does a band achieve the same standards against such limitations?

Evidence of the effort put into attempting to attain this goal is the very strong performances that were given by the Ensemble at competitions at BC (2nd place), Berklee, Central Districts (Bronze), and UNH. At the District Competition seniors Jon Ciottone, Mike Sasena, and Eric Turnquist were awarded certificates for Outstanding Musicianship. On March 31 the band made its annual trip to Longview Farm Recording Studio to cut a tape — a memento for each member of this year's hard work.

In addition to the competitions, the band performed a Christmas Concert and a Spring Concert here at St. John's and several concerts at Notre Dame Academy (in programs which also featured the combined Concert Band, combined chorus, and the NDA Jazz Ensemble); perhaps the most memorable performance of the year was the parade in Paxton which provided the opportunity for the band to swing on the back of a flatbed truck while they performed "In the Mood" and other favorites.

SERVICE, SCHOLARSHIP ...

Service, scholarship, and a general spirit of altruism characterize that which the National Honor Society represents. The Brother Campion Chapter of the National Honor Society had an extremely active year throughout 1991-1992. The Chapter began with an eight-week Easter Seals' project referred to as the Haunted House at the Greendale Mall. Students from the Bancroft School, along with 110 St. John's students, participated in the event. Other activities included the Easter Seals Telethon on Channel 56 on March 8, 1992, the Dismas House service, the St. John's Open House Program, the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon, and the Very Special Arts Program for children with special needs. The year was a very successful one with each endeavor determined to promote cooperation and service.

SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

The eleventh annual Mothers' Guild Auction to benefit St. John's was held November 1. The theme this year was Saturday Night at the Movies. Saint John's graduate Paul Zekos auctioned off hundreds of items from Pioneer Theater.

This year's auction was definitely a tremendous success. "A wonderful St. John's community effort that benefits both the parents and school ..." - Mary Beth Finnerty of the Mothers' Guild. "A dream created and brought to fruition through the energy of many minds and hands ..." - Mary Anderson of the Mothers' Guild. Junior Mark Galante said the auction was a time when, "students, faculty and patrons alike, had a great time raising money for Saint John's."

Thanks to Br. Comeau and his staff for serving an outstanding prime rib dinner. Thanks to Br. Fahey for his added entertainment, the members of the Saint John's Mothers' Guild for their hard work and dedication and all the staff and students who helped make this year's auction a great success.

MODEL UN

The St. John's Model United Nations Club had another successful and enjoyable year. Under the leadership of Linh Ha, Brian Mixter, and Philip Farese, along with moderators Mr. Novick and Mr. Laborde, the Model U.N. ventured to three national conferences and held the sixth annual St. John's Model United Nations Conference.

The officers for this year included Secretary General-Brian Mixter, Parliamentarian-Adam Taranto, President - Linh Ha, and Vice-President - Matt Mackoul. Under the direction of the officers, weekly sessions met at the Manor House in General-Assembly format as well as Security Council. The discussions ranged from the Kurdish crisis in Iraq to the ongoing battle between Pakistan and India. These sessions proved helpful in the preparation for national conferences and also in the teaching of new delegates.

In October the club hosted the sixth annual St. John's Model U.N. conference. Over 125 delegates from across Massachusetts and Rhode Island participated in Security Council for this one day conference. The conference was very successful, and was headed by Secretary General of the conference Linh Ha.

In December the St. John's delegation representing Belgium participated in the Harvard Model United Nations Conference in Boston. After hours of preparation for the conference our delegates contributed to the debate in the nine councils they were present, including the Security Council.

In the winter months, the Model U.N. took part in the University of Chicago and Georgetown University National conferences. The delegates proved very successful in performing against delegates from all over the country. At Chicago, representing Belgium, eleven members were recognized as Outstanding Delegates and St. John's was represented in thirteen committees.

In February the Georgetown conference took place. Sixteen delegates including many freshmen gained valuable experience from the conference, which contained more than 2500 delegates from across the country. Georgetown also provided our delegates, who were representing the United Kingdom, a unique opportunity to visit the UK Embassy, and receive "hands on" experience.

With the emergence of many freshman delegates along with the core group of experienced juniors the outlook for the St. John's Model U.N. looks very promising.

REACHING THE TOP

The St. John's Math Team stormed through their season. They captured the New England Championship for the Medium School Division, which marked the first time in the league's history a Central Massachusetts team has won it. They also won first place in the Worcester County Mathematics League for the second year in a row as well as finishing a strong second place in the State Meet. Leading the team to victory were seniors Dan Louzonis, Philip Farese, and Chris Pollice, junior Ed Hanson, sophomore Sameer Bhalotra, and freshman Tom Buckingham.

There were also many individual accomplishments. Dan Louzonis was voted the Most Valuable Mathlete of the Massachusetts Mathematics League. Ed Hanson was the High Scorer in the League, Sameer Bhalotra took High Scoring for sophomores, and Tom Buckingham took top scoring honors for freshmen with a perfect score in all three meets. Ed Hanson also took 7th place in the Math Olympiad which is the best finish an SJ student has had since 1984. Not only did they receive these honors, but they also received numerous honors in other league competition.

The Freshmen Math Team also did very well this year. They had a tough season and were in a constant battle with nearby rival Worcester Academy for first place in the League. It came down to the last meet, but St. John's came out the victor and took first place in Division A for the second year in a row. Both coaches, Mr. Stephen Gregory and Mr. Gerry Taylor, are confident that the Class of 1995 will continue the tradition of excellence set by previous classes on the varsity level.

FUTURE ENGINEERS???

The combined Scale Modellers, Railroad and Aviation Clubs had an interesting year of activities in 1991-92. The traditional activities were mixed with some new features, including a surge of interest in Radio Control Cars.

The Scale Modellers Club spent the year honing kit-building techniques in the weekly meetings held in 204. Working with kits supplied by the Student Activity Council of the school, modellers produced a group of models notable for the level of craftsmanship and detailing which they included. The photos accompanying the story show the winners of the annuals Scale Modellers Club Model Contest, but only detailed examination of these masterpieces can do them justice, well done guys!

The Railroad Club has finally gotten the huge Flavian Hall layout operational thanks in part to a great effort by underclassmen. The layout permits the operation of three trains simultaneously, all controlled from a central "cab" position. Next year should be primarily devoted to landscaping the system, which models New York/New England scenery.

Aviation Club members visited the New England Air Museum of Windsor Locks, Connecticut, to complete their year. Weekly activity centered around regular Aviation video presentations from the club's growing library of VCR tapes.

All three groups succeeded thanks to great effort by underclassmen, suggesting that NEXT year's activities should be fantastic. Stay tuned for more details.

SPOTLIGHT

Long before the doors at Saint John's had opened in September, the 1992 Yearbook Staff had been brainstorming to create the book you now hold. The cover and theme concept were developed by the editors during the summer and the book has taken shape ever since. This year, the staff decided on the theme "A Spotlight On Saint John's." This creative theme not only allowed for the book to give a comprehensive overview of all aspects of life at St. John's, but also opened the door for many visual effects that make this book special. The staff believes they have produced an edition that equals, if not surpasses, the editions that have come before.

A key to the success of "Spotlight" was the superb guidance of the editors, seniors Rick Subrizio, Brian Anderson and Tom Gregory. Along with them, their faithful student staff comprised of about twenty underclassmen labored for hundreds of hours to add new ideas and insights to the book. Their dedication is what really made the difference.

Even before you received this book, the staff was already hard at work on the 1993 edition under the leadership of three new editors.

A final note of thanks goes out to Mr. Patrick Gillis and Br. Robert Furlong whose help, guidance, and tolerance is greatly appreciated, and Francis "Skip" Doyle, whose wonderful photographs helped to brighten up our pages. The true "spotlight" belongs to them.

READ ALL ABOUT IT!

St. John's school newspaper The Frontier, is a quarterly publication. The Frontier updates the students and their families on the recent events in the St. John's community. The moderators, Messrs. William Prendiville and Ron Mariano, work with the staff of senior editors and underclassmen journalists to produce a top-rate publication.

A typical issue of The Frontier contains articles of interest to the students such as sports, social events, clubs and school news. During this past year, the senior editors, Rick Subrizio, Chuck Abdella, Brian Anderson, Mike Benecchi, Alex Charalambides and Marc Gribbons, all made sure the Frontier was in keeping with the standard of a quality publication.

The Man Who Lost His Dreams

A man trudges down the street
His walk is like so many other, the masses similar to him
He is a man who lost his Dream.
He had one in his youth, but everyone said
"You can't do that," or, "that's impossible"
And he began to believe them.
He has lost his dream, and he cannot get it back.
Now it's Eat, Work, Sleep
Every day for the rest of his life.
The only variety in his life is the TV he watches at night.
He believes that his dream is lost somewhere,
Somewhere in the perfect life of TV.
He was fooled into losing his dream
And its too late to change anything.

The Moon On The Sea

The moon on the sea
is so far away
that we don't think it could be or that it will stay
but as the moon falls
the sun arises to our pleasure and it is this gigantic ball which when rising begins our leisure and so now as this day begins and we wake up to a sight
we forget all our sins and look into this wondrous light

"LEARN A LANGUAGE, LIVE A CULTURE."

The Language Clubs this year have sparked a lot of interest and involvement. Both the Russian and the French clubs have had a very successful year.

The French club has gone on numerous excursions to Boston to experience the French culture through films and displays. They started off the year with a trip to the film Le Château de Ma Mère and Tartuffe. In January they visited the Boston Museum of Fine Arts to admire the works of Impressionist artists. February saw them off to the famous epic musical drama Les Misèrables. Come June members will be going on a 13 day trip to France. They hope to experience the culture by visiting Paris, Nice, Monaco, Eze, and Chamonix.

The Russian club has experienced a tremendous revival this year. Through the leadership of John Marshall and Sean Squire, the club has renewed its participation in many area events. They were involved with the Worcester Pushkin Sister City Project, Inc. which was an organization that helped to provide economic and medical assistance to Pushkin, a Russian city. Numerous speakers have come to the school and discussed Russian history with the group. The club is also hoping to establish a student exchange program with the city of Pushkin within the next year.

The students who have participated in these clubs hopefully will have a better understanding of their motto "Learn a Language, Live a Culture."

POINT-COUNTERPOINT

St. John's debaters completed another successful season by winning awards at the Massachusetts State Tournament for Debate at Wellesley High School in mid-March. All members of the present team will be returning next year for what will be the best of all since the program resumed in 1987.

Juniors Martin Boudreau and Brian Prestes attended eleven tournaments throughout the year and consistently qualified for final rounds. Juniors Chris Zieminski and Vu Nguyen reached the final rounds in four tournaments. Both Martin and Brian won several speaking awards; Vu was awarded the best speaker trophy at The Manchester Debate Tournament, where Boudreau and Zieminski teamed up to win this Championship.

The future for the team looks bright with intermediate level debaters David Kerbel, William Zennon and Kurt Hansen moving up the ranks, winning several individual and team awards on their way to impressive finishes. Also beginning their careers in debate on novice level this year were Charles Sylvester, Martin O'Malley, Tim Lauring, and Anthony DiBenedetto, all of whom showed impressive skills in this year's competitions.

All debates held in the United States this year were on the National Debate Resolution: That the federal government should significantly increase social services to homeless individuals in the United States. In 1992-1993, all debaters will deal with the Official Problem Area: "The Global Environment: What should the U.S. do to improve the global environment?" Good luck to all debaters with this pressing topic.

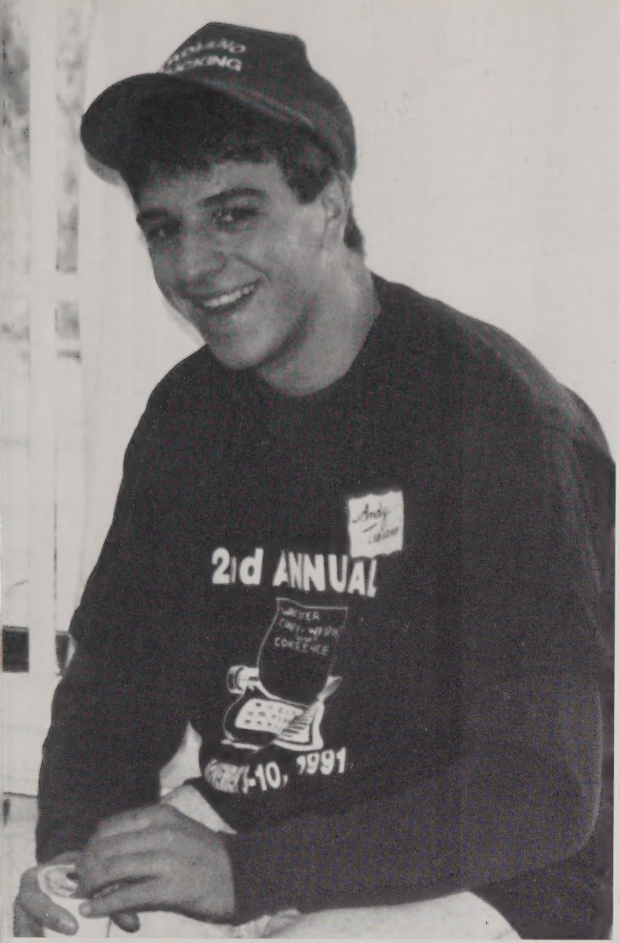
MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD?



The second annual Worcester County Young Writers' Conference was held on Saturday and Sunday, November 9th and 10th, at the Saint John's Manor. The Conference, which was open to sophomores, juniors and seniors from area high schools, was being sponsored by the Massachusetts Teachers of English Association, the Worcester Telegram and Gazette and Saint John's High School.

The Young Writers' Conference is a program that places the students with professional writers based on the student's choice of genre (short story, poetry or essay). These professionals serve as mentors to the students by helping them to develop new works or revising the young writer's previous works. Over the course of the weekend, students attended various workshops, led by the mentors, to learn how to improve their writing skills. The young writers also shared their individual works with the core group, to be constructively criticized by their peers and the professional writers. During the course of the Conference, students and mentors had the chance to read their writings to all of the participants and mentors.

Robert Cormier, author of such literary delights as "The Chocolate War" and "I Am the Cheese," was the guest speaker on Sunday. He finished the weekend with a brilliant talk on writing and his own writing methods. All who attended profited greatly from the experience. Dan Stern, who introduced Cormier to the entire gathered Conference said of the weekend, "The Conference taught me new innovations ... (it) was definitely a positive experience."

The directors of the Conference, Mr. David A. Vilandre and Mr. F. Michael Novick, are happy that the 1991 Conference was as successful as the 1990 Conference. The participants of this year's Conference, many of whom were returnees from last year, found it to be a rewarding learning experience. Saint John's is happy to be a part of this program, which will undoubtedly become a tradition for young writers and mentors for years to come.

THE S.A.C.

Completing a productive and successful year was the Student Activities Council. This community service council was headed up by seniors Brian P. Donovan, President, Michael Alberts, Vice-President, James Dorsey, Activities Coordinator, and Kevin Dandrade, Treasurer. With their constant support and leadership they helped out the other high school members, Nick Trippi, Parliamentarian, R.J. McGrail, Secretary, and Kevin Carmody, Publicity Director. The council was organized by moderators, Mr. Jay Coggins and Mr. Anthony O'Donnell.

S.A.C. had a productive year by staying on top of things. The council headed up and organized the Freshman Big Brother Day and sponsored the American Red Cross Blood Drive. The Student Activities Council also helped the less fortunate in the public community by sponsoring various clothing and food drives. The Student Activities Council also made the school year fun by sponsoring the Thanksgiving Day Pep Rally and a number of school dances.

As the new S.A.C., '92-'93, President Greg Kean, Vice-President Jeffery Perras, Activities Coordinator Matthew Shook, Treasurer Aaron Hoffman, Parliamentarian Thomas Cecil, Secretary Matt Szklarz, and Publicity Director Lee Blanchette, take the lead of the school community, hopefully the success of the events will continue and continue because of the generous efforts of the student body.

The United States Academic Decathlon is a ten-event scholastic competition for teams of juniors and seniors from high schools throughout the U.S. Begun twenty-four years ago, the competition now includes 44 states and the District of Columbia.

The ten events cover Economics, Language and Literature, Mathematics, Physical and Biological Sciences, Fine Arts, and Social Science. In addition, students sit for an interview, deliver speeches, and write essays to demonstrate proficiency in communication skills. All competitors take part in a Super Quiz; this year's theme for the competition and Quiz was "Habitat Earth."

The Academic Decathlon was founded to foster scholastic excellence among high school students representing a diversity of backgrounds and interests. Each nine-member team consists of three each "A," "B," and "C" students.

St. John's competed in the Mass. contest for the first time this year. St. John's won "Best Rookie School" and eventually finished eighth out of the original sixty-one high schools.

Special thanks to members of the faculty for their help in the coaching sessions, and a very special thanks and much appreciation to the A D moderators, Mrs. Carol Fredette and Mrs. Elizabeth Kavanagh.

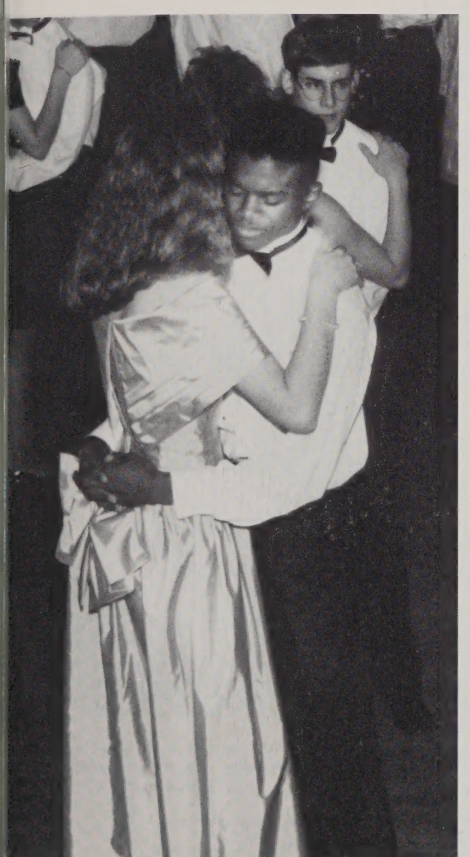
NINETYTHREEPROM



"... CARRY EACH OTHER ... ONE."
-U2

"Is it getting better? Do you feel the same?"

These words were not only the opening lines to U2's hit ballad and this year's Junior Prom theme song, "One," but they were also the general questions of class officers Bill Condron, Matt Shook, and Rich D'Elia to their fellow classmates on the evening of May 8, 1992, at Mechanics Hall in Worcester. This was prom night, and earlier in the year Condron, Shook, and D'Elia decided that they wanted to have a better prom than any of the classes before the Class of 1993. The only way they could accomplish this was with suggestions and comments from the students who would be the future prom goers.

After talking with several students, they received many ideas, and whether these ideas were feasible or not, they were all to be taken into account. Many people asked that there be more of a variety of food to choose from. As a result, on the evening of May 8th chefs and caterers filled Mechanics Hall and tended to a huge buffet which had everything from roasted ham and roast beef to potato and pasta dishes. Although many of the guys' dates ate only the nice garden salad, all of the food was spectacular. On the other hand, some students said that often times at these "dances" the music did not please everyone. Well, the night of the prom the DJ's had been given a list, compiled by the students, of artists and songs they wanted to be heard. Finally the faculty was represented by Junior Class Advisers Mr. Danna and Mr. Villandre, as well as their colleagues Br. Fahey, Mrs. Kenary, Mr. Roche, Mr. O'Donnell, Mrs. Fredette, and Br. Jim Connolly. All in all, this was a great evening and definitely one to remember. -

THEATER OF ILLUSIONS

March 27, 1992 was the date of the Sophomore Semi-Formal held in the CAF. Comedy and Tragedy masks were borrowed from Notre Dame Academy which set the scene for this enchanting evening. The music, which was provided by Conte Sound, and the food, stuffed manicotti, kept people busy throughout the night. Some favorites of the night were "YMCA", the Conga Line that went outside, and the "Oldies but Goodies." The night was completed when the class officers, Chris Girardi, Joe Manzoli, and Kevin Rooney thanked everyone for coming.

PIZZA AND SODA

On March 28, 1992 the Freshmen held quite a bash in the CAF. The class officers, Lee Blanchette, Jeremy Sheehan, & Carter Dubois, decided to go against the norm and make the evening casual by serving pizza and soda. The tunes were laid out by Conte Sound. The evening started out slow, but really picked up when Sophomore officers Chris Girardi, Joe Manzoli, and Kevin Rooney left the soda bar and got everyone going in a Conga Line. Despite the snow, a good time was had by all.

GRIDIRON GUYS

If three words could describe the 1991 St. John's High School Varsity Football Team they would be as follows: persistence, courage, and determination in the face of adversity. All things considered, this year's squad was as successful as many of the previous squads that have come to define PIONEER EXCELLENCE.

Faced with one of the toughest schedules in all of Massachusetts, the Pioneers ground through the season to end with a 6-5 record. Among the team's triumphs were confrontations against Catholic Memorial, Holy Name, in-state rival Shrewsbury, and bitter rival St. Peter Marian.

Led by co-captains Chris McNamara #11, and Eric Koza #88, the Pioneers demonstrated that they could hold their own against some of the strongest teams around. Fourteen seniors contributed to the success of this year's squad along with the many other dedicated individuals who truly showed their COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE.

STRENGTH, LEADERSHIP

Those two words summarize the gallant effort of the Saint John's soccer program, with the Varsity squad 13-2-5, losing in district and semi-finals. The Junior Varsity and Freshman squads remaining undefeated. The leadership supplied by the senior co-captains of Jay Wrzosck and Josh Nunnemaucher and the coaching staff of Mr. Brian Foley, Varsity, Mr. Tony O'Donnell, Junior Varsity, and Mr. Donald Morrin, Freshmen. The strength provided by juniors, Chris White, a captain of next year's squad, and Simon Deery, the team high scorer.

The high point of the season was defeating the Saint John's Prep (Danvers) team, twice, during the season. A personal triumph was achieved by the consistent Varsity goalie, Joe Brady, when he scored his first Varsity goal against Saint Peter Marian in a 7-0 victory. The prestigious Central Mass. Coaches All-Star team which acknowledges 26 Division I players from the Saint John's squad, Jay Wrzosek, Josh Nunnemaucher, Chris White, and Simon Deery.

This season, in general, to quote Chris White, was "productive" and the future looks bright, in the spotlight, as the Junior Varsity and Freshmen teams have been undefeated for the past two seasons. The leadership and strength in the Saint John's soccer program will continue for years to come.

CRAZY EIGHTS

Can St. John's Cross Country get much better? Once again, the Pioneer harriers hauled in the Central Massachusetts District Title. St. John's accomplished this feat for the eighth time in a row-matched by no other boys or girls team in the state. This year's team also finished higher at the State Championships than any other S.J. team with an impressive 3rd place.

The undefeated Pioneers (now 48-0 over the years) were led by tri-captains Pat Murphy, Brian D'Amelio, and Brian Donovan. Senior Kirk Souza, Juniors Jeff Smith, Mike McGuirk, Tom Cecil, Brian Mozinski, and Sophomores Roy Sevigny, and Brian Chabot rounded out the amazing top 10. Although S.J. will miss their four valuable Seniors, these Juniors and Sophomores with Freshmen Dennis Ahern and Jacy Henderson hope to bring home another District Title. This year's team was coached by Mr. Raul Laborde, Coach Dick Donahue, and Br. Tom Pearson.

FALL CREW 91

After a week of pre-season training in late August, regarded as "Hell Week" by the rowers, the fall crew season had officially began. The nerve wrecking try-outs were over and the boats were made.

Only a few weeks later the first race, Textiles, was underway. While St. John's fourth boat came in an impressive 2nd, third boat finished an even more impressive 1st in its race.

The Snake Race, at the local Quinsigamond Lake, had the entire crew involved. Even with colleges rowing in that race, St. John's fared well.

Those being the only two races in the season, one being canceled, Frostbites, the fall season was finished. The oars were hung up, the lake was frozen over, and the winter training had begun. Well, spring will be coming soon, and so will the next season.

SLAM DUNK

The Saint John's Basketball team, with the exception of a loss to Milford High School, had one of the most successful seasons ever. The leadership exemplified by seniors Sean Halloran, Chris Zack and juniors, Mike Shannon and Todd Marrone, led to the team's twenty wins and two losses. While Sean Halloran and Jon Kerr led in rebounding, Todd Marrone led in points scored. Also, Mike Shannon and Chris Zack's efforts proved to help the team. Although only five of the thirteen players were underclassmen, it is said that next year's team will be the one to take the Pioneers to the states, under the leadership of Jon Kerr, Todd Marrone and Mike Shannon.

This year's 1991-92 season ended with a loss to the Fitchburg Raiders in the District E Finals. Despite this loss, Todd Marrone and Chris Zack were named T&G All-Stars; Marrone was also named a CMC All-Star. Next year's team spots will be filled by eight or nine players from the JV team which also had one of its most successful seasons at 18 and 0. The Freshmen season ended at 17 and 2.

All together, this was another great season in Pioneers' Basketball.

1, 2, 3, S.J.!

The St. John's hockey team again kept up that strong tradition and Pioneer spirit as they skated to a 12-7-1 season. Leadership given by the four remaining seniors, Captain Chris Glew, Pat Shipman, Jason Willard, and Jamie Reidy, to the nine new recruits really led to an emotional and inspiring season. The 1991-1992 season can be epitomized into one word, success. Although the team had a rocky beginning losing their first three games, newcomers Nick Sinerate, Scott Wesolowski, and Dan Piskadlo helped get the team back on track as they won the next six out of eight games.

Coaches Brian Murphy and Tim Duffy were poised and confident as their team headed into the District playoffs. The competition was extremely tough, but the Pioneers excelled over opposition. For the fifth time in six years the District Championship belonged to St. John's.

Their next challenge was to be a rivalry match against last year's State Semifinals victors, the Panthers of Springfield Cathedral. The game was long and fought hard by both teams, but when the final buzzer sounded it was the Pioneers on top with a 5 to 2 win over Cathedral. It was time to head to the Boston Garden for the State Championship.

Tough defense and key goals would decide who would be "crowned" the 1991-1992 State Champions. The game was fast paced and played very defensively. In the end, however, the Pioneers lost a close knit 2 to 1 battle to Hingham.

Although the team lost in the finals, their season ended on a positive note. No one had expected such a young and inexperienced team with ten sophomores to even make it to the Districts, but the entire team proved the critics wrong. As for the future, the coaches and team have new plans and a motto to go along with them, "We'll be back!"

THE FIFTH CONSECUTIVE ...!

The Pioneers concluded their fifth consecutive undefeated season, generally crushing their local opponents. The ninety man team featured outstanding individuals and strong depth in all events. Outstanding team performances included: winning the Martin Luther King Relay Meet, and the District "E" Invitation Meet; finishing fourth in the State Class "A" Championship Meet and fifth in the "All-Class" State Meet.

St. John's was led by Chad Kopp who won the State High Jump championship with a record setting (school and state) jump of 6'10½". Individual District Champions were Matt Creelman, Chad Kopp, Kirk Souza, and Brian Donovan. The two mile relay team of Brian Donovan, Kirk Souza, Tom Cecil, and Roy Sevigny finished 2nd in the "All-State" Meet.

With an excellent blend of senior and underclass talent, St. John's looks forward to continued excellence next winter.

SPORTS CLUB ACTION AT ST. JOHN'S

The ideal would be that every St. John's student would be able to have full involvement in team sports in each of the three sport seasons. While that goal may never be fully realized, the new St. John's Sports Club Program is a strong step in the right direction. Students who may have come close to making an interscholastic sport team or who would not try to participate at that level should be able to thrive in an active, competitive team sport program. The club includes such sports as basketball, softball, volleyball and soccer.

Mr. Michael Mead is the director of this program. Many faculty members and athletes will shoulder the administration and implementation of the program. Sportsmanship and competitiveness will be hallmarks of the Sports Club.

THE KEY WAS THE "P"!

Pioneer Baseball is behind us once again. This year, more than any other, was the epitome of baseball for the Pioneers. The Varsity team had an impressive regular season of 17-6. But what was most outstanding was the victory over Milford to get into the District finals. The Pioneers had been knocked out of the finals for the past two consecutive years by Milford.

The key was a strong pitching staff - the "P". Captain Jared Forgues led a relatively experienced bunch. With strong pitching by Chris Zack, Rich Roach, Charlie Eppinger, Captain Jared Forgues, and Junior pitcher Billy O'Brien, the team was well insulated from the torture of many bats that could have been. The "Bad Boys" on the team that carried big bats were Seniors Dave Duhamel, Mike Alberts, John Hogan, and Tim Bonin. Youthful zeal and a small preview to other teams about what next year's team will look like was added by Billy O'Brien, Jamie Pinzino, Matt Keaney, JR Thomas, Jimmy O'Brien, Todd Marone, Jon Cahalane, Matt Wetherell, and Matt Sklarz.

The hard work and determination paid off once again for the St. John's crew. There was strong hitting and fielding this year and the Pioneers should be more than proud of themselves. The J.V. and Freshman teams show much promise and they also spell much doom for future opponents.

ST JOHN'S TENNIS 14-2

After a 14 - 2 regular season the 1992 Pioneer tennis team defeated both Westford Academy and Doherty High before losing to Wachusett High in the district final, all three meets decided 3-2. In the finals, doubles teams of Shawn Hogan and Kurt Powers and Andy Nagy and Khoa Nguyen both won over very strong pairs from Wachusett. Brian Buyniski, De Nguyen and Renaldo Garces tried gallantly to overcome the Wachusett strength, but it was not to be.

Named All-City All Stars after districts were Andy Nagy, Brian Buyniski and Khoa Nguyen. Earning Telegram and Gazette All-Star status were Andy, Brian, and Khoa, Kurt Powers and Shawn Hogan; all five and De Nguyen were league all-stars.

Under the direction of Ron Mariano and Elaine Firnstein noteworthy accomplishments for the season were doubles teams losing only three matches combined over the season. Brian Buyniski reached the semifinals of the sectional in a field of 64 players. A number of members contributed and gained valuable experience, prominent among them were Robert Elster, Stephen Rodger, Thomas Donovan, Chris Neff, Steve DeWolf, Chad Pimental, Andrew Shaw, Scott Bonneau and Brian Gavin.

GOLF

Led by four seniors, Jeff McGee, Stephen Miele, Kurt Krause and Patrick Quinn, the golf team won the District Championship by beating Leominster High 320-322. Freshman Benjamin Delman and sophomore Eric Trottier completed the 6-man contingent that helped post a brilliant 19-1 regular season record.

Individual achievements complimented the overall accomplishments. In the State Individual Tournament Stephen Miele placed fourth in the State. In the District qualifying tournament for the State Individual Tournament, Jeff McGee finished second in the competition and Stephen Miele placed fifth. Jeff and Stephen average a 39 for 9 holes over the regular season - 3 under the home course at Wachusett Country Club par.

Under the direction of Mr. William Prendiville the future looks bright with Eric Trottier and Ben Delman and members of this year's first junior varsity golf team. Opportunities are there for newcomers to gain a place on the team.

SPRING CREW 92

The Spring Crew Team enjoyed, as always, a memorable season. With coaches John Deedy, John Ermilio, and recent graduates Paul Kennedy and Seth Lemansky, the rowers passed expectation.

The team, captained by senior Pete Boria, traveled through the region to races in Philadelphia and Poughkeepsie. Visiting St. John's were the rowers from Oratory in England.

The team endured fierce competition by racing Ivy League crews. Of course, St. John's remained worthy opponents, seeing that 1st boat placed first in the Mid-Hudson Rowing Classic and the Petit Finals. Third boat also fared well as they made the Grand Finals.

DOUBLE-TRIPLE

On May 30th, this year's Spring Track team, coached by Mr. Dick Donahue and Brother Tom Pearson, reached the pinnacle of its season. A late rally in the District E Class meet gave St. John's the win and assured its undefeated season. Some outstanding performances were turned in at the meet, the foremost being Chad Kopp's first place, record-breaking high jump of seven feet and one inch. With the Cross Country and Indoor Track teams each winning their respective District titles, this victory gave St. John's the Triple Crown title for the second year in a row. This is the first time a "Double Triple" has ever been won, with all three triple crowns ever attained belonging to St. John's.

This tremendous 12-0 season was led by tri-captains Chad Kopp (high jump), Kevin Grondin (long jump), Kevin Dandrade (330 yard hurdles). Some other key factors in the victorious season were Brian D'Amelio (one mile), Matt Hughes (100 yard dash), Roy Sevigny (one mile), Sean McCran (pole vault), Glenn Bernard (400 meter), Matt Shook (330 yard hurdles), Brian Donovan (1 mile), and Matt Creelman (hurdles).

PROM NITE '92

We knew that our days at Saint John's were coming to an end when the night of our Senior Prom began. All dressed up with someplace to go, more than 150 couples enjoyed a luscious prime rib dinner at the Worcester Marriott, and then worked it off by dancing all night to the sounds provided by our wonderful D.J. The prom was enjoyed by all and special thanks for this special occasion go out to the Senior Class Officers, Charlie Eppinger, Brian D'Amelio and Eric Koza. Our gratitude also goes to Mr. Hamelin and Mr. Jourcin, our class moderators. Thanks for the memories, guys. Next stop, Commencement ...

COMING TOGETHER

On May 17, 1992, the seniors and their families came together for the last time before graduation which would only be in two days. This beautiful Sunday witnessed that which St. John's is so proud of ... family. Father Nichols celebrated the Mass and some of the readers included Charlie Eppinger, Brian Donovan, Kevin Grondin, and Jeremy Hughes. Following the Mass was an enjoyable brunch in the cafeteria. A good time was seen to be had by all.

THE FINAL CURTAIN

The Class of 1992 presented itself at the Worcester Memorial Auditorium on Tuesday, May 19. After S.A.C. president Brian Donovan's warm welcome, the graduates proceeded to receive their diplomas from Bishop Timothy Harrington, the evening's chief celebrant. After the diplomas were handed out, Brother Conal presented the Forensics Award, the Academic Achievement Award and the Xaverian Award to Phil Farese, Art Lew and Rick Subrizio, respectively. The ceremony was then turned over to Art Lew for his touching Valediction. Finally, Bishop Harrington gave his benediction and the evening was over, as were our days at St. John's. Four years of hard work had come to an end, only to give way to four more at one of the many colleges St. John's graduates will be heading to in the fall of 1992. Congrats, goodbye and good luck to the Class of '92!

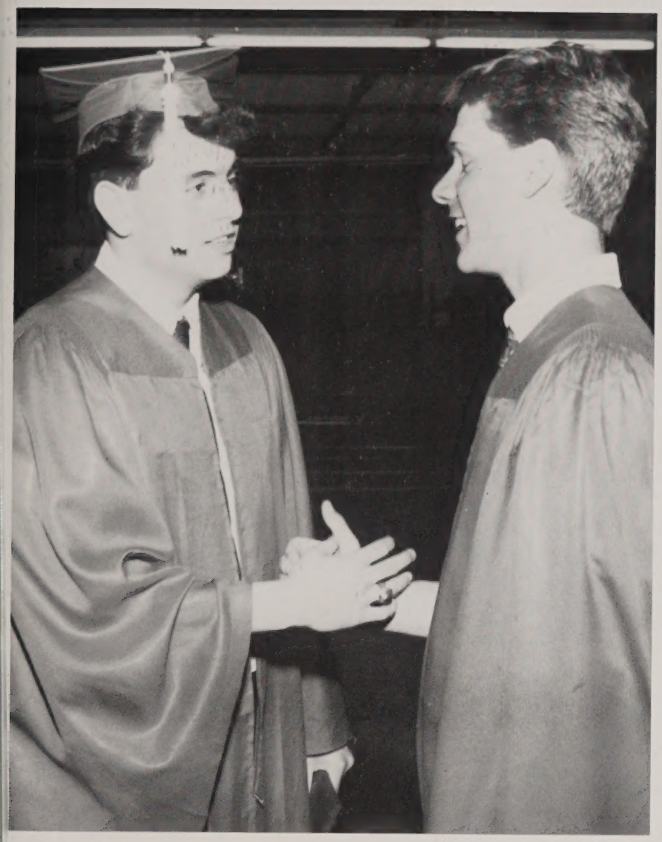
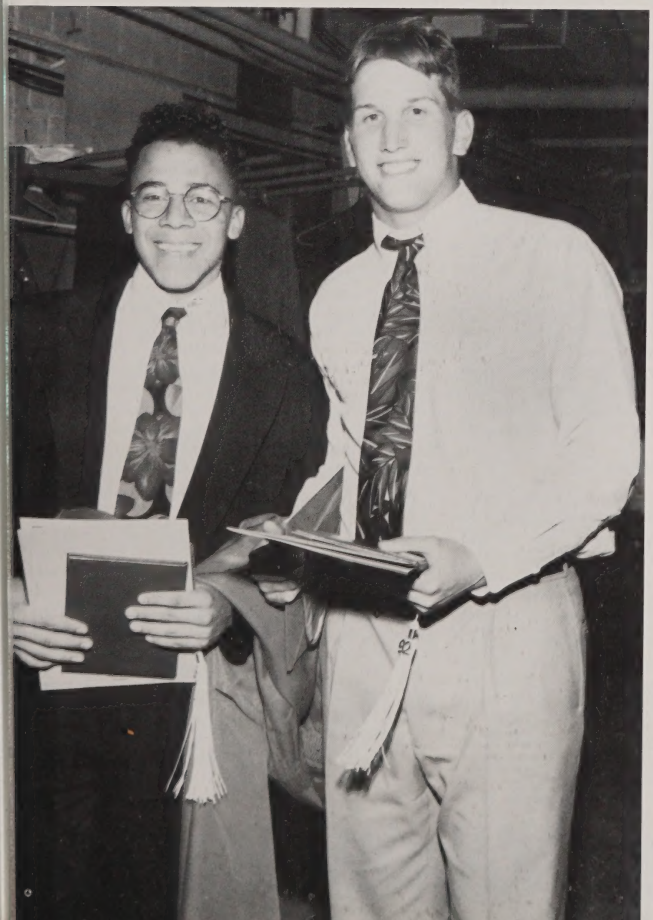
◀Jeremy Bombard and Seth Clarke examine their viewbooks after graduation.



◀"I'll see you around, friend." Jon Palardis and Mike Sasena congratulate each other at the end of the evening.

▼Rick Subrizio receives St. John's highest honor, The Xaverian Award, presented by Headmaster, Brother J. Conal Owens.



◀"Smile! It's finally over!" Brian Forbes and Mike Alberts grin at their passage from SJ Seniors, to SJ Graduates.

The moderators Mr. Patrick Gillis and Brother Robert Furlong, C.F.X., the editors and staff of Spotlight would now like to thank those without whom the 1992 St. John's High School yearbook would not have been such a success.

Brother J. Conal Owens, Brother Stephen Comeau, Brother Thomas Fahey, Brother Thomas Morrissey, Mr. Robert Moynagh, and Mr. Jay Coggins for their support.

The entire Student Activities Council and moderators Mr. Jay Coggins and Mr. Anthony O'Donnell for their generous allocation of funds.

The faculty and staff of St. John's for all their patience in assisting the staff in obtaining photos and in identifying students, as well as for their ideas and encouragement.

Mrs. Jeanne Garvey and Mrs. Nancy Lane for their services and assistance in the Business Office.

Mr. Francis "Skip" Doyle for sharing his professional photos with us.

The Worcester Telegram & Gazette and their photography staff for their permission to use some of their photos.

Mr. David Roth of Walsworth Publishing Company for his creative ideas and enthusiastic encouragement.

COLOPHON:

The 1992 Saint John's High School Yearbook, entitled "Spotlight," was published by Walsworth Publishing Company, 9233 Ward Parkway, Kansas City, Missouri 64114. New England Regional Headquarters: 91 Payson Street, Fitchburg, Massachusetts 01420. Publishers Representative: David M. Roth.

550 copies were published in September of 1992, as well as, 2500 "Admissions Over-Runs" and 550 "Preview Books" published in May of 1992. The yearbook consisted of 188 pages. 40 pages of 4-color were submitted. 148 pages of Black and White were submitted. Pages #1-16 were printed on 100 pound Ultra-Gloss number one grade paper, with the remainder on 80 pound Enamel number one grade paper.

Special effects included the usage of Bright Red #192 within the opening section, in percentages from 20 to 100%. 30% marbleized Fibral screen backgrounds were also used.

Typography base styles were from the Lydian family. Headlines at 36 point. Body copy at 10 point. Captions at 8 point. Brush and Mystral were also used for special emphasis.

The cover was produced on a base white book cloth, with applications of P.M.S. inks #192, 123, 001, and 125. The finished covers were coated with a surface lamination process. The cover design, sketch and mockup were produced by the Walsworth Publishing Company Creative Services Department.

The 2500 "Admissions Over-Runs" and 550 "Preview Books" consisted of the yearbook's opening sixteen (16) pages, as well as, a paper cover of endsheet weight #102 Mist Grey recycled paper. The cover was printed utilizing Gold foil #800 and Black ink #001. Admissions information was printed on the inside covers in Black #001.

The Senior Editor-in-Chief was Richard Subrizio. Advisers: Mr. Patrick Gillis, Brother Robert Furlong, C.F.X.

The 1992 Saint John's High School Yearbook was chosen by Walsworth Publishing Company to be a National Marketing Sample Book.
